60 MINUTES (continued)

05/27/01 "Delayed"- since the deregulation of the airline industry, passengers have encountered problems with cancellations, delays, overcrowding. With no foreseeable solution to the problem, due in part to the lack of sufficient gates and runways to handle an increasing number of fliers, our nation's aviation system seems to be headed toward gridlock. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 11/26/00)
"Arctic Oil"- focuses on the debate over President Bush's campaign promise to open Alaska's Arctic National Wildlife Refuge to oil and gas development. Environmentalists insist that the refuge must remain untouched to protect its endangered wildlife, while proponents of the plan claim that it's the only way to meet the nation's energy crisis. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman) (OAD: 02/04/01)
"Gold In Them Thar Schools"- an interview with Chris Whittle about the Edison Project, his for-profit education corporation and the country's leading private operator of public schools. Whittle claims that, operating within a school's budget, he can achieve superior results and still make a profit. Critics charge that commercialism has no place in our schools. (C: Morley Safer - P: Dierdre Naphin) (OAD: 11/14/99)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Talk Show Guest" - Andy's appearances (OAD: 10/22/00)

48 HOURS

05/02/01 "Cheating Death"- profiles people who have faced life-or-death crises, including reports on: Steven Courtney and Deborah Brosnan, a Portland, Oregon couple who survived the crash of a Singapore Airlines flight in Taiwan last year and, despite extensive injuries, guided 15 passengers to safety; Joanne Calabrese and Roger Marcaldi of Boston, Massachusetts who were aboard a Greek ferry which sunk after striking a rock, resulting in the drowning of 81 passengers; and Tillie Tooter, an 84-year-old Fort Lauderdale woman whose car tumbled into a swamp as a result of a collision and who was trapped in the vehicle for four days. (C: Richard Schlesinger, Erin Moriarty, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Alec Sirken, Marcie Spencer, Ira Sutow)

05/10/01 PREEMPTION

05/16/01 "Tornado"- about 1000 dangerous tornadoes hit the United States each year, affecting more lives than hurricanes and inflicting just as much damage -- with even higher speeds. 48 HOURS reports on the devastation these storms leave behind and the powerful fascination tornadoes hold for scientists and thrill seekers, including reports on: two families caught in the path of the worst tornado outbreak in Oklahoma history which struck on May 3, 1999.; storm chasers, adventurers from as far away as Europe who are spending vacations chasing tornadoes; and Ken Bird, a photographer whose mission was to collect and restore photographs blown away by the Oklahoma tornado. (C: Peter Van Sant, Richard Schlesinger, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Sophia Kim, Diane Ronnau, Miguel Sancho, Steve McCain, Stuart Miller) (OAD: 07/27/00)

05/17/01 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Never Forget" - report on criminal cases that have gone unsolved for decades, featuring reports on: the identification of Michael Brashar as the perpetrator in the 1982 rape/murders, in Houston, Texas of 14-year-old Lisa Dawn Hoag and 20-year-old Mary Ann Castille; the arrest and conviction of Linda Sobish, a day care provider for the 1978 death of 5-month-old Ryan Wanta, including an interview with Sobish who is appealing her conviction; and two Philadelphia police detectives, Sam Weinstein, retired, and Tom Augustine, Philadelphia Police Homicide, who are working to solve the mystery surrounding the beating death of a boy whose body was found in a box in 1957. (C: Peter Van Sant, Troy Roberts, Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Diane Slaine-Siegel - P: Paul LaRosa, Anthony Batson, Lisa Freed, Karen Benfield, Josh Yager)

- 05/24/01      (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "Prisoners In Paradise" - when Lois McMillen, a Connecticut artist was found dead on the British Virgin Island of Tortola in January 2000, four young American tourists were charged with her brutal murder. William Labrador, 37; Alex Benedetto, 35; Michael Spicer, 39; and Evan George, 24, were arrested and tried for the crime. The judge at the trial dismissed murder charges against all but William Labrador, citing insufficient evidence. Labrador's mother Barbara claims that police rushed to judgment in order to protect Tortola's image and is working to free her son from prison. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Patti Aronofsky, Loen Kelley, Chuck Stevenson, Susan Wiggins)
- 05/28/01      "Living Better Longer"- 48 HOURS examines the lengths to which people will go to feel and look younger including reports on: the 59-year-old actor Nick Nolte's controversial and cutting-edge dietary regimen; the impact of social contacts on the aging, and Marie Massa, who runs Introductions III, a matchmaking service that caters to older people; syndicated talk show host Dr. Dean Edell, who talks about the possible danger involved in taking over-the-counter herbal supplements; Dr. Linda Bach, who attended medical school at 45 and now, at 52, is the oldest resident at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, Florida; Dr. Leila Denmark, who is still practicing medicine at 102; Earth Kitt, the 73-year-old entertainer who still continues to tour the country with her cabaret show. (C: Peter Van Sant, Russ Mitchell, Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Clare Friedland, Josh Gelman, Cassandra Marshall, Jay Young) (OAD: 06/15/00)
- 05/31/01      "Heroes Under Fire"- a fire that ignited in an abandoned warehouse in Worcester, Massachusetts, last year, claimed the lives of six firefighters. 37-year-old Tom Levesque and 19-year-old Julie Barnes, a homeless couple living in the building, were subsequently charged with manslaughter for starting the blaze. Tim and Debb King, a Maine couple, having discovered that Julie Barnes is the biological sister of their adopted, mentally retarded daughter Jennifer, managed to raise bail and gain Julie's custody. A Massachusetts court dropped charges against both Julie Barnes and Tom Levesque, ruling the fire an accident but the district attorney plans to file an appeal. (C: Dan Rather, Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Anthony Batson, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 11/02/00)

60 MINUTES II

- 05/01/01      "Memories Of A Massacre" Pts. I & II- an interview with Sen. Bob Kerrey about a recently uncovered report that Kerrey, a Navy lieutenant in the Vietnam War, led a SEAL team that killed 20 unarmed civilians, almost all of them women and children, in a single operation in 1969. Includes Sen. Kerrey's description of the event as well as a conflicting versions given by Gerhard Klann, a member of Kerrey's unit and Vietnamese witnesses to the attack. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson, Gregory L. Vistica) (special one-hour report)

"Under The Microscope" - a report on Joyce Gilchrist, an Oklahoma City police chemist whose work put hundreds of people behind bars. Gilchrist is currently the subject of an FBI investigation arising from allegations of errors in identification and incomplete and inadequate laboratory notes. Includes an interview with Jeff Pierce, an innocent man, who spent 15 years in prison on a rape conviction based on Ms. Gilchrist's testimony. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
"Killing The Indian" - a century ago the government of Canada set up a system of boarding schools ostensibly to educate Indian children. Canada's biggest churches were paid to run the schools whose real goal was to eradicate Indian culture from the Canadian nation. Today the schools are closed but thousands of former students, claiming that they were physically and sexually abused, are taking legal action against Canada's government and its churches. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum)
"Joe Torre" - interview with Joe Torre, manager of the New York Yankees who talks about his childhood and the abuse he suffered at the hands of his policeman father. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Phil Shimkin)
Charles Grodin - news headlines: arsenic in drinking water; infant car carriers; trade alliance in Quebec; enforcement of the car seat belt law

05/15/01

"Every 24 Hours" - an investigation into the high incidence of railroad crashes in the U.S. Evidence points to the emphasis on speed and faulty track maintenance as the chief causes of the mishaps. Includes interviews with Steven Moss who headed a study on track safety; George Gavalla, track inspector for the Federal Railroad Administration; and Chuck Dettmann, head of safety for the Association of American Railroads. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider)
"The Lost Boys" - 14 years ago Sudan's civil war resulted in the deaths of two million people. Thousands of boys, left orphans by the war, began a walk to safety which, in 1992, brought them to Kakuma, a refugee camp in Kenya. The American government has started a program by which the boys will be resettled in various parts of the U.S. where volunteer groups will help them to find housing, jobs and the opportunity to get an education. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggon Mihailovich)
"Change Of Address" - followup to "Change Of Address" (OAD: 02/25/96), a report on a scam involving the use of address forms to divert mail in order to access social security, bank and credit card information. The followup consists of an interview with Dr. Mary Zupanc, a victim of the scam. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman, Barbara Dury, Deborah DeLuca Sheh)
Charles Grodin - looking for inspiration

05/22/01      "The Fugitive" - a report on the FBI's worldwide manhunt which culminated in the capture by French authorities of James Charles Kopp, the alleged killer of abortion doctors, including Dr. Bernard Slepian of upstate New York. Kopp is being held in a French jail awaiting an extradition hearing. If the French authorities turn him over to the U.S. Kopp could face the death penalty. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andrew Wolff)

              "The Island" - a report on the Penikese Island School, a program offered as an alternative to jail for teenaged boys convicted of violent crimes. The school, based on Penikese Island, a desolate 74-acre former leper colony off the coast of Massachusetts, focuses on a rudimentary lifestyle with emphasis on physical work, education and the ability to get along with each other. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Randall Joyce)

              "Lest We Forget" - followup to "Lest We Forget" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 10/10/82), a report on the controversy over the design of the Vietnam War Memorial. The followup, focusing on the modifications made to the original plan, includes an interview with Maya Lin whose controversial design for the memorial was chosen in a nationwide competition. (C: Morley Safer)

              Charles Grodin - news headlines: runaway train; the oil crisis; paddling in schools; polygamy

05/29/01      "OKBOMB" - four FBI agents involved in the Oklahoma City bombing investigation...Dan Vogel; Rick Ojeda; Jeff Jenkins; and Jim Volz...say that the failure to turn over documents to defense lawyers before the trial of Timothy McVeigh was a result of the agency's bungling. Rob Nigh, McVeigh's attorney, claims that because evidence beneficial to the defense was withheld, the verdict is invalid. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)

              "The Letter" - on May 13, 1981 Ali Agca attempted to assassinate Pope John Paul II. In 1997, Agca wrote a letter, recently made public, claiming that the attack was masterminded by the KGB and naming KGB agents who were involved. Includes an interview with Ferdinando Imposimato, an Italian lawyer to whom Agca gave the letter; Oleg Gordievsky, a former KGB agent; and Stefan Markov, a lawyer who allegedly delivered a death threat to Agca in order to force him to retract testimony implicating KGB-recruited Bulgarians in the attack. (C: Scott Pelley - Harry Moses, Sabina Castelfranco)

              "Kobe" - profile of Los Angeles Lakers basketball star Kobe Bryant. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)
